CINCINNATI CONVENTION.

[illegible] Noyes on behalf of Ohio presented the name of Gov Rutherford B Hayes one who is well known and greatly beloved by Ohio. He had defeated successively Thurman Pendleton and Wm Allen. He has [illegible] the habit of beating Democrats and [illegible] will do it again if nominated. He is brave honest unfaltering wise sagacious statesman. He is the candidate who can carry Ohio Indiana Illinois and New York as well all the rest. [illegible] him you will have a candidate on whom all differences can unite and [illegible] his nomination is the safest and best for the insurance of success.

Bartholomew of Pennsylvania presented the name of Governor Hartranft which excited applause. He did not claim him to be superior intellectually to all the other candidates but he knows enough and will listen to good sound and sensible advice. He is the chosen leader of the Pennsylvania Republicans.

On motion of Cumback the convention adjourned until 10 o'clock to-morrow morning.

Comments on Thursday's Proceedings.

The Convention adjourned until 10 o'clock to-morrow when the first business will be the balloting. At close of the day Blaine's forces were still compact. Ingersoll's electric speech having inspired the weakest with renewed confidence.

Blaine's friends still remain confident that he will be nominated on the third ballot and the result absolutely certain. Within the crisis to [illegible] his contest for the prize. His marvelously compact, well organized body of unreserved supporters, though double the number at the command of any competitor still fall so short of a majority of the whole number necessary to a nomination. But the number wanted will be had unless after the first ballot some new combination is developed between all of Blaine's rivals. Blaine's security against a disastrous combination rests in the inability of his opponents to concentrate affirmatively on some one candidate—negative [illegible] nothing. Bristow's friends number some 120 on the first ballot to 140 on the second, but neither Conkling nor Hayes will accept him as their rallying leader. Most of the New York delegation concede that Conkling's nomination is impossible. Thus the ablest men admit Blaine's nomination unless beaten by a concentration upon some candidate. Attention is turned chiefly to Hayes of Ohio who bids fair to be the nominee if by any possibility Blaine fails. This possibility would be indefinitely remote except for the fact that Blaine's opponents now thoroughly appreciate his dangerous strength and have all night to devise means of averting their common danger. I conclude that Blaine's nomination is highly probable but if he fails Hayes is the only present candidate who can win.

It is now well settled that at least 30 New York delegates will break from Conkling after the second ballot. This will probably be the signal for breaks from other candidates. Blaine's friends claim he will gain largely by this and the claim is believed to be well founded. Still herculean efforts are making to concentrate on Hayes with some hope that when Bristow ceases to rise his friends will transfer their votes to Hayes. Bristow having written declining to accept the second place under the circumstances. This disposes of the suggestion of Evarts and Bristow as the ticket. The Presidential nominee will be Blaine or Hayes, almost certainly the former. Delegations, it is admitted will break by the second or third ballot after Blaine will get at least 30 despite the leaders and that will nominate him.

Platform.

The following is the platform read by Hawley a synopsis of which has already been published

Mr President—You must be aware that your committee on resolutions upon assembling found itself constituted of men of somewhat differing sentiments and widely separated localities and mostly strangers to each other. We have in general agreed upon the sentiments we are about to present to you and respectfully submit it for your consideration and for your amendment if you choose. It is as follows

When in the economy of Providence this land was to be purged of human slavery and when the strength of the government of the people for the people was to be demonstrated the Republican party came into power. Its deeds have passed into history and we look back to them with pride. In cited by their memories and high aims for the good of our country and mankind, and looking to the future with unfaltering courage hope and purpose, we the representatives of the Republican party in the National Convention assembled make the following declaration of principles

1 The United States of America is a nation not a league. By the combined working of the National and State government under their respective constitutions the rights of every citizen are secured at home and protected abroad and the common welfare promoted

2 The Republican party has preserved those governments to their hundredth anniversary of the nation's birth and they are now embodiments of the great truths spoken at its cradle, that all men are created equal that they are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights among which are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness that for the attainment of these ends governments have been instituted among men deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed until these truths are cheerfully obeyed or if needed to be vigorously enforced the work of the Republican party is unfinished

3 The permanent pacification of the southern section of the Union and the complete protection of its citizens in the free enjoyment of all their rights are duties to which the Republican party stands sacredly pledged. [Applause] The power to provide for the enforcement of the principle embodied in the recent constitutional amendments is vested by these amendments in the Congress of the United States and we declare it to be the solemn obligation of legislative and executive departments of the government to put into immediate and vigorous exercise all its constitutional powers for removing any just causes of discontent on the part of any class and for securing to every American citizen complete liberty and exact equality in the exercise of all civil political and public rights [Applause] To this end we imperatively demand a Congress and a Chief Executive whose courage and fidelity to these duties shall not falter until these results are placed beyond dispute or recall [Applause] In the first act of Congress signed by President Grant the National government sought to remove any doubts of its duty to discharge all just obligations to public creditors and solemnly pledged its faith to make provision at the earliest possible period for the redemption of U. S. notes in coin. [Applause] Commercial prosperity public morals and national credit demand that this promise be fulfilled by a continuous and steady progress toward specie payments [Loud and long continued applause]

Under the Constitution the President and heads of departments are to make nominations for office. the Senate is to advise and to consent to the appointments and the House of Representatives is to accuse and prosecute faithless officers. The best interests of the public service demand that these distinctions be respected that Senators and Representatives who may be judges and accusers should not dictate appointments to office. The invariable rule for appointments should have reference to the honesty fidelity and capacity of the appointees giving to the party in power those places where the harmony and vigor of the administration requires its policy to be represented but permitting all others to be filled by persons selected with sole reference to the efficiency of the public service and the right of all citizens to share in the honor of rendering faithful service to their country

6 We rejoice at the quickened conscience of the people concerning political affairs and we will hold all public officers to a rigid responsibility and engage that the prosecution and punishment of all who betray official trusts shall be swift thorough and unsparing (Cheers)

7 The public school system of the several States is the bulwark of the American Republic and with a view to its security and permanence we recommend an amendment to the Constitution of the United States for adding the application of any public funds or property for the benefit of any schools or institutions under sectarian control. Great cheering continuing for several minutes. In response to repeated calls Gen Hawley read this plank a second time and the delegates and audience repeated their cheers

8 The revenue necessary for current expenditures and the obligations of the public debt must be largely derived from duties on importations which so far as possible should be adjusted so as to promote the interests of American labor and advance the prosperity of the whole country

9 We reaffirm our opposition to further grants of the public lands to corporations and monopolies and demand that the national domain be devoted to free homes for the people

10 It is the imperative duty of the government so to modify existing treaties with European governments that the same protection shall be afforded to the adopted American citizen that is given to the native born that all necessary laws should be passed to protect immigrants in the absence of power in the States for that purpose

11 It is the immediate duty of Congress to fully investigate the effect of the immigration and importation of Mongolians upon the moral and material interests of the country. [Applause]

12 The Republican party recognizes with approval the substantial advances [illegible] toward the establishment of equal rights for women by the many important amendments effected by Republican legislatures [illegible] in the laws [illegible] the personal and property [illegible] honest demands [illegible] additional rights [illegible] should be treated with respectful consideration. [Applause]

13 The Constitution confers upon Congress sovereign power over the Territories of the United States for their government and in the exercise of this power it is the right and duty of Congress to prohibit and extirpate in the Territories that relic of barbarism, polygamy and we demand such legislation as shall secure this end and the supremacy of American institutions in all the Territories.

14 The pledges which the nation has given to our soldiers and sailors must be fulfilled. The grateful people will always hold those who periled their lives for their country's preservation in the kindest remembrance

15 We sincerely deprecate all sectional feeling and tendencies. We, therefore, note with deep solicitude that the Democratic party counts as its chief hope of success upon the electoral vote of a united South secured through the efforts of those who were recently arrayed against the nation and we invoke the earnest attention of the country to the grave truth that a success thus achieved would reopen sectional strife and imperil the national honor and human rights

16 We charge the Democratic party with being the same in character and spirit as when it sympathized with treason; with making its control of the House of Representatives the triumph and opportunity of the nation's recent foes; with reasserting and applauding in the national capitol the sentiments of unrepentant rebellion; with sending Union soldiers to the rear and promoting Confederate soldiers to the front; with deliberately proposing to repudiate the plighted faith of the government; with being equally false and imbecile upon the overshadowing financial question; with thwarting the ends of justice by its partisan mismanagement and obstruction of investigation; with proving itself through the period of its ascendency in the lower house of Congress utterly incompetent to administer the government. We warn the country against trusting a party thus alike unworthy, recreant and incapable

17 The national administration merits commendation for its honorable work in the management of domestic and foreign affairs and President Grant deserves the continued and hearty gratitude of the American people for his patriotism and his immense services in war and in peace

Mr Pierce of Massachusetts—Mr President and gentlemen of the Convention—I desire to move an amendment to the platform which has been offered and to make a few remarks in support of the amendment. I move to amend by striking out what appears in the 11th resolution in relation to Mongolian immigration. [Applause.] The Republican party in this Centennial year is twenty years old and meets to-day for the sixth time in a National Convention and this is the first time in all that long period that any attempt has ever been made to put in the platform a discrimination on account of race. In 1858 on the prairies of Illinois Abraham Lincoln met his great antagonism on this ground that nowhere in the declaration of independence had there been confined to the Caucasian to the exclusion of the African, Mongolian or other races. I denounce, therefore that resolution as a departure from the life and memory of Abraham Lincoln. I denounce it as a departure from every platform adopted by every Republican National Convention. I denounce it as a violation of the principles of the declaration of independence. I denounce it as contrary to the general law of Christian life which strictly proclaims there is no distinction between Jew and Gentile. I therefore move this amendment. I will not accept the resolution. It is not my doctrine. It is not the doctrine of New England. Not a member from New England is for it and the only African on our committee records his vote against it.

Gov Axtell of New Mexico in relation to the proposed amendment said I desire the attention of the convention for but one or two words. The Republicans of the Pacific States in fact all persons irrespective of party desire that Congress should investigate the question of Mongolian or Chinese immigration. There is no other action called for by the resolution but simply to investigate the question. It is claimed by those best informed upon this subject that this immigration is not in good faith. that in fact it is an importation of coolie slaves, that it is an importation of labor hired in China at the prices paid there at we will suppose $4 per month with contracts running three or four years under the coolie system that they come under pretense of immigration to this country and by their customs by their pagan faith and habits degrade American labor. Cheers. We have asked Congress to investigate the subject. We ask that the great Republican party that has always been opposed to the slave trade should investigate this subject that the time has come for this step to be taken. I trust this simple request from the brethren of the Pacific slope will be acceded to simply for investigation

Senator Jones—Gentlemen of the convention After so long and tedious a session I do not propose to occupy the attention of this convention but for a few minutes. The question is one of the greatest importance not only to our own citizens, but our own laborers with regard to the reward that they shall get for labor, and with regard to the morals of the community. The people of the Pacific Slope have found an invasion there worse than the grasshopper plague. worse than the plague of the locust. They find a people who bring with them no respect for our government and no knowledge of our language a brutalized people a people in whom we recognize neither honesty among their men nor virtue among their women. They have planted themselves like a leper sore in our midst. I believe there is scarcely an exception on the Pacific coast. With regard to the action which should be taken by this convention on the resolutions submitted by the committee there are many of us who believe there is a majority of the law abiding people upon that coast who are in favor of protecting the Chinese but we find that the public opinion is so strong, against them that it is almost impossible to do so. The very language of the Chinaman has degenerated into libidinous slang. They do nothing to support the schools of the country nothing to support the churches of the country they do nothing to support the organized society in the country. These Chinamen can work for 10 cents a day, perhaps and successfully compete with the American laborer who raises a family and who when the country is in danger places himself in the front of the defense. In these resolutions already offered and to which my opposition has been made I find one with relation to the tariff that the duties on imports shall be so levied that the rights of the American laborer shall be protected that he shall receive as high wages as it is possible for him to receive. I have no doubt that the gentleman who addressed you in favor of the resolution opposing and traversing the resolutions submitted by the committee is in favor of these imposts or tariffs for the protection of the American laborer. That is to say, he is in favor of imposing a tariff on the introduction of goods or manufactures from abroad under the pretence that American labor will be protected but he shows himself to be in favor of unlimited and free importation of coolie semi-slave laborers to compete with the American laborers of the Pacific coast. Applause. This resolution so far as nothing but this that this convention calls on Congress to appoint a committee to inform itself so that it shall know as much about this question as those who live on that side of the country and have been subject to alien horrors. All it asks is that Congress shall investigate and if anything shall be necessary then of course nothing will be done and I hope there will be no serious opposition to the passage of the resolution as offered by the committee

Speeches were made by [illegible] on the Texas Pacific railroad bill by Hooker upon questions of general politics referring to the carpet bag government at the South protesting against the withdrawal of negro suffrage by Frese on the admission of New Mexico, and by Lawrence of Ohio on Hallet Kilbourn and the habeas corpus. The proceedings were without present interest but the telegraph bulletin in the lobby giving the latest news from Cincinnati excited very strong attraction. The various phases of the Republican Convention were eagerly studied and discussed throughout the day

SAN FRANCISCO June 15.—An attempt was made this evening to have Conlon the murderer of Miles, released on bail, but on reading the evidence taken before the coroner's jury the judge refused to set bail until further testimony had been received

Smallpox in the City Prison.

Smallpox made its appearance in the city prison this evening producing a small panic. Two trusties, one of whom was acting as cook for the prisoners, were found to have the disease. They were lodged in the prison hospital and reported to the physician in charge, who refuses to permit their removal. The close and often crowded condition of the station house renders it a first class hot bed for the propagation of the disease

Hot Weather.

SACRAMENTO June 15.—It was hoped that the present heated term would only continue three days. We have had so far five days of very warm weather each day being warmer than the previous one, and to-day is the hottest of all. At 1 P M the thermometer stood 102° in many places. Telegrams received to-day give the following figures. PIONEER REUNION

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE OREGON PIONEER ASSOCIATION ON THE STATE FAIR GROUND

First Day's Afternoon.

AFTER DINNER

Was over the crowd strolled around through the stands or gathered about the ice cream and soda water establishments in the vain effort to counteract the caloric in the atmosphere by partaking of these cooling confections

AN ACCIDENT

About 1 o'clock a very bad accident occurred which created much excitement and in some measure detracted from the pleasures of the day. Some ladies, buggy riding were doing their own driving which they should not attempt at such a time and place unless they are very expert. In one buggy were two young ladies and in another were two ladies and three children. They were said to have been trying the speed of their respective teams and both buggies were going at the full speed of the horses. Unfortunately they ran too close together and by a collision the vehicles were both upset and the occupants violently thrown out. The horses then ran on until one buggy was completely wrecked and the other nearly so. Hundreds of people rushed of course to the spot where the accident happened. When the parties were gathered up out of the dust it was found that two of the women—one of them Mrs. Jennie Montgomery, the other's name we did not learn—and two of the children, a daughter of Richard Sayers and a son of Mr Cross were all more or less injured, being bruised and cut about the bodies and heads. They were about as dusty and bloody a set as one often sees from one runaway but after examination by a physician, it was found that none were fatally injured and the anxiety of the crowd was relieved

THE MUSIC,

In addition to the excellent music furnished by the Northwest Band of Portland during the whole reunion Prof T H Crawford with a large number of ladies and gentlemen gave a vocal concert in the pavilion this afternoon which was well attended and furnished real pleasure to all present.

MRS JENNIE E DAWNE

Read an excellent essay to a large audience, all of whom appreciated it greatly and expressed admiration of the writer's beautiful thoughts clothed in classic diction, at the same time breathing that sympathetic spirit which is characteristic of the womanly heart

Mr Stephen Staats of Polk county was called out and made a brief address after which the audience dispersed to make preparations for

THE BALL

The music by the band before named was good of course, the attendance was large, and at 8 o clock Prof Parrish, chief of the terpsichorean art called out "partners for a quadrille" and the dancing began. A more orderly party of such numbers or one in which all seemed to more thoroughly enjoy themselves we have seldom witnessed. Not until about 3 o clock did the music cease, or the merry feet move for home. In the meantime the more aged and sedate pioneers were

AROUND THE CAMP FIRE,

A new and better name given to what has been called the Pioneers' Love Feast. Around this camp fire many short speeches were made, many thrilling anecdotes of life on the plains and pioneering in Oregon were told and the true spirit of re union of hearts was manifest in the bearing of all present. At times these quaint stories would excite mirthfulness and at others allusions to the more serious phases of those early days would bring tears to eyes unused to weep. May the camp fire of the Oregon Pioneer Association ever burn as brightly and the "pipe of peace" ever be smoked around it in as much harmony as on this occasion.

Second Day.

The attendance this morning was not quite so large as yesterday but still the crowd was not a small one. A business meeting of the association was held at 9 o'clock, at which a large number of persons were present. The usual routine business was transacted and the utmost harmony prevailed in the minds of the members in regard to the acts of the association. The subjoining reports of the secretary and treasurer, showed the condition of the body, were submitted

Secretary's Report.

Mr President and Members of the Oregon Pioneer Association At this, the fifth annual reunion of the association, your secretary would respectfully beg leave to report

Since our last reunion there has been a steady increase of interest in the affairs of the association and quite a number of the early settlers of Oregon have become members, while others have evinced a deep interest in the welfare of the association

THE DEATHS

Of our members who have passed away since our last reunion, the first was Joseph L. Meek who resided near Hillsboro, Washington county. Col Meek died June 21, 1875, aged 65 years 4 months and 4 days and was sick at the time of our last reunion. For a more extended notice and biography the members are referred to an article furnished by the gifted pen of Mrs F F Victor, published in this year's transactions

Capt. Leven N. English, a member of the class of 1845, died in Salem Oregon, March 6, 1876, at the ripe age of 84 years 11 months and 10 days. There was a short notice of his life published in our Transactions, but not as full as was justly due on account of the near completion of the publication, but a much fuller biography is being prepared for the association's biographical book

Samuel Allen, a member of the class of 1847, died in Salem May 12 1876, aged 71 years. Uncle Samuel Allen, as he was most familiarly known died after our Transactions had been issued, consequently his name does not appear on the memorial page

These three deaths are all that your secretary has been informed of but there may have been more, and I would suggest that when a member of this association has passed away that information be furnished to the secretary, with name, date and age, with such biographical sketch that would prove of interest to the association and the people of the State.

There have also several other old pioneers not members of this association, died during the year. The first I believe, was Joseph H Brown who resided, I think, in Washington county at an advanced age, also Mr Nelson, of Polk county also a short time previous and in the same county, another settler, whose name I did not obtain, who had reached nearly 100 years of age

Jean Jacque Mathout a native of France and a resident of Butteville, Marion county who died May 23, 1876 aged 72 years and 1 month

Walter Monteith, the proprietor of Albany Oregon, died at that city last Sabbath, June 11 1876 aged 60 years

These last mentioned deaths most probably do not belong in this report but it shows how rapidly the pioneers of early Oregon are passing off of the stage of action after a life of toil and danger and having established a State on the far off Pacific coast thousands of miles from the homes of their childhood and made the wilderness blossom like the rose

AMENDMENTS

By request of several who are interested the subject of striking out the words "Provided That no admission fees or yearly dues be exacted from female members of the association" in article IX of the constitution, is brought to your attention, and they argue that they wish to be placed upon an equal footing with male members. I can only say that there are now on the roll thirty female names which, if they paid one dollar a year, might have some weight on the subject

MEMBERSHIP

For the purpose of having uniformity, and to obtain as many members as possible I printed at my own expense, blanks with the proper headings as adopted by the association at its organization adding the postoffice address and appointed agents wherever I could ascertain that a person would act and take in [illegible] the same. This action met with the hearty approval of the board of directors, and I hope the association will approve of the same, if you think proper as it was thought that by this means the names of many could be obtained that could not have been otherwise

For the purpose of arranging the names alphabetically and systematically I manufactured a book and copied all the members' names into the same

To keep the accounts, I had printed receipts and bound into books with proper stubs, considering it the easiest and most accurate way of keeping the accounts of the members, giving a receipt to a new, for membership or dues from old, properly noted on the stub

FINANCE

This is a subject that requires careful legislation, and it has been suggested that the dues be raised to that of $1 50 or $2 as it is quite evident that at the present amount it is not sufficient to meet the necessary current expenses. The idea has been advanced that there be a subscription paper circulated at the town or city where it has been determined to hold the re union but that is a very uncertain way of raising money, especially when the gathering lasts for only two days and that a social one. If ladies should be allowed to pay an initiation fee and yearly dues as male members, there will most probably be added from $50 to $100 per annum. There should be a fund set aside each year, and allowed to accumulate for the purpose of erecting a simple monument to old pioneers who have spent the energies of their lives in the establishment of civilization on this coast, or for the especial need that may come up unprovided for; or purchase of books for a library.

AUTOBIOGRAPHY AND BIOGRAPHICAL BOOK.

Early in July last I issued the following circular.

OFFICE OF RECORDING SECRETARY,
SALEM OREGON, July 5, 1875

To the Pioneers of Oregon —The undersigned, recording secretary of the Oregon Pioneer Association proposes to open a "Book of Autobiography," and will record in the same, for the purpose of accumulating all the information possible in regard to the early history of Oregon, and thus rescuing from oblivion, all the incidents pertaining to Oregon's history, hardships endured by those who traversed the plains or arrived by water also, all scraps of history or incidents relating to persons who are now dead or still living, whether in this State or elsewhere. Incidents of Indian wars, accounts of trips to California in 1849 and 1850, history of the discovery of gold in California, Southern or Eastern Oregon. In fact everything that will prove interesting and wish to have the same recorded no matter how insignificant or trivial you may think the incident is, it contributes to the general history of the State of Oregon

I suggest the following as a general plan. Name in full date of birth, giving date of month and the year, town, county and State or Province, giving incidents of early life, year of emigration to Oregon, and an account of the trip and arrival and where first settled, with as complete a list as possible of those who accompanied you and the names of those died or lost their lives while on the journey. You are also requested to send your photograph, with name distinctly written on the back, and year of arrival, in ink.

It is hoped that all will act upon this suggestion, as every person who came to Oregon up to the time of the completion of the railroad across the plains can furnish something of interest.

In reply to the above circular I have received a few sketches, but not so many as I had hoped, and will state that the Pioneers of Oregon possess more modesty than Lieutenant General Winfield Scott, who wrote his own autobiography, and insisted that no one could do the subject justice as well as himself. And I have conversed with several who thought it advisable to incorporate in the same book the biographies of deceased members. If the above scheme should meet with your approval and endorsement, it would undoubtedly go far toward forwarding the object

LIBRARY

As a commencement toward a library of the Association Hon Wm. H. Gray donated two volumes of his "History of Oregon," and the thanks of the Society is due that gentleman for his liberality. This is a subject of considerable importance to the Association, and the sooner a move is made to collect books, journals, manuscripts and newspapers published in Oregon, or [illegible] to the early history of this coast, the [illegible] and the more complete collection can be obtained. In fact many valuable works are now out of print, and it would most probably be next to impossible to obtain them. I am credibly informed that there is only one known copy in existence of Captains Lewis and Clarke's journal of the expedition to Oregon in 1804, and that is in the Congressional library at Washington City. I received a catalogue of old works for sale in New York City that mention eight different works on Oregon or pertaining to this coast, that can be purchased at a reasonable price, considering their scarcity

I have made an effort to make a collection of books and papers published in Oregon, such as the Oregon Spectator, and other newspapers, also the Archives and other pamphlets and books, but have met with very indifferent success.

NATIVITY.

The question has been quite frequently asked, "What State has [illegible] the most pioneers?" And as an answer, I have compiled the following from the roll of the association

Where from to Oregon—Arkansas 5; California, 8 Connecticut, 3, Georgia, 1; Illinois, 103 Indiana 29, Iowa, 48, Kentucky 6, Maine 3, Maryland, 2 Massachusetts, 7, Michigan, 6 Minnesota, 1 Missouri, 104, New Hampshire, 1, New York, 23 Ohio 30 Oregon 8, Pennsylvania 5 Tennessee, 5 Vermont, 1, Virginia, 3 Wisconsin 1 Foreign countries—England, 3, Russia 1, Canada, 1 Ireland, 1, Sandwich Islands, 3, Scotland, 2 South America, 1, New Zealand, 1, Mexico 1.

Native State or country—Alabama, 2, Arkansas 3 Connecticut, 7 Delaware, 1 Georgia, 1, Illinois, 47, Indiana 31, Iowa 12, Kentucky 39 Maine, 5 Maryland 7 Massachusetts 15, Michigan, 3, Missouri 68 New Hampshire 4, New Jersey, 1 New York, 55, North Carolina 3 Ohio 50, Oregon, 13 Pennsylvania 21, Tennessee, 33 Vermont 7, Virginia, 29 West Virginia 5 Wisconsin, 1 Foreign countries—England 22 Australia 1, Bavaria 3 Germany, 7 Russia, 1, Canada 6 Ireland 8 Cuba, 1, Switzerland 1 Van Dieman's Land, 1 New Brunswick, 4 Scotland, 3, Prussia 1, Nova Scotia, 1

Nearly every civilized nation on earth is represented. Truly a cosmopolitan people gathered together under one flag and government and members of one association each bringing with him the improvements and the energy of his race as common stock in reclaiming a wilderness and establishing civilization on the far away Pacific coast

FUTURE PROSPECTS

The outlook for our future prosperity in usefulness and numbers is very flattering and the interest that is now being awakened in the affairs of the association cannot help but forward our prosperity

CONCLUSION

In conclusion I will say that I have performed my duty to the best of my ability and used all the energy I possessed in forwarding the objects of the association and I found that there was a great amount of work to do but hope it has been successfully accomplished but will say that I have received encouragement and assistance from Hon John W Grim our venerable president and Willard H Rees Esq, the energetic and acceptable corresponding secretary

Hoping that my work will prove satisfactory as submitted to you for inspection,

I remain yours, etc

SPEECHES.

At 10 o'clock music by the band called the people together at the speaker's stand, and as the morning was pleasant in the shade, a great many occupied the seats and listened to the descriptive address of Hon John Minto, who spoke for about an hour saying much that would [illegible] interest all our new [illegible] as well as pioneers, but which we cannot detail here. He was followed by Hon S. F Chadwick, Dr Roland, Mr [illegible] and Rev J L. Parrish, who [illegible] had something to interest the audience, that seemed not to tire in listening to the recounting of [illegible] and incidents connected with Oregon's early history. Among the many impressive things said by these speakers, we especially noticed that the audience seemed to appreciate the touching allusions made by Mr. [illegible] to the late Dr. McLaughlin, who, [illegible] Briton, who as a class were bitterly opposed to the Americans settling in the Territory, nevertheless stood firmly in the cause of humanity, and in spite of the opposition of Gov. Douglas, other members of the Hudson Bay Company and all the power of British influence on the northwest coast, Dr. McLaughlin aided and sheltered the impoverished immigrants, and said, "these men must be sheltered and fed." He had a giant body, and his heart was as large in proportion. He was one of God's noblest works and an ornament to his race.

A POEM,

Composed and read by a young gentleman named Eberhard, showed a [illegible] appreciation of what is appropriate for such an [illegible] and served to take up part of the time. Mr. Eberhard is a native of Oregon, we learn, and this effort of his is another proof that this State can produce poets [illegible] as well as almost everything else

THE ANNUAL [illegible]

Of the association was down in the programme for 11 o'clock this forenoon, but the exercises in the grove were prolonged till the [illegible] bound north arrived, and the [illegible] look to the dispatches or to the [illegible] mail for further reports. Altogether, the reunion has been [illegible], and, as the years go by, its importance is more generally [illegible] and the interest in it more [illegible] felt. The good feeling engendered by the common [illegible] borne by the pioneers is here [illegible] and transmitted from sire to son. May it run through the future as it is here developed, and make Oregon noted as the land of [illegible] as it is, as well as the land of plenty.

SATURDAY MORNING JUNE 1, 187

THE NEXT PRESIDENT

The "Great Unknown" has made his appearance under the name of Rutherford B Hayes governor of Ohio On the seventh ballot in the National Republican Convention, Rutherford B Hayes, of Ohio was nominated for President of the United States, receiving 384 votes five more than were necessary for a choice

Mr Hayes has been spoken of very frequently in connection with the candidacy and yet the news of his nomination will be a surprise to the public so completely had the idea of Blaine's nomination taken possession of the people The first feeling is one of disappointment—not that Hayes is selected, but that Blaine is not It has been for some time apparent that Mr Blaine's support was of that positive and outspoken kind which rendered it quite certain he would command his entire strength as soon as the complimentary voting for local candidates was over, and that should he fail to receive a nomination, then he could hardly hope to gain votes afterwards Whoever was willing to vote for him at all had already declared for him and could be counted

The nomination of Hayes was evidently brought about by a combination of the supporters of other prominent candidates, who found it impossible to secure their own favorites This appears by adding together the votes of Blaine and Hayes Their combined votes comprised all the convention but 18 votes

Notwithstanding the country expected the nomination of Blaine it will be found that Hayes is a strong nomination It will not arouse the same enthusiasm with which Blaine would be greeted, but it will command the respect and confidence of all thoughtful people, and call out the entire vote of the Republican party There is a peculiar fitness and a positive advantage in the selection of Hayes, in the fact that he comes from Ohio, the State which will hold the first of the fall elections, and that he has already shown his ability and popularity, by defeating only a few months ago, one of the strongest, if not the very strongest, man the Democracy have in Ohio, or in the Republic In October Ohio will lead off with a Republican majority of twenty or thirty thousand, and the tidal wave once set in motion will carry the whole country for Hayes in November

Governor Hayes, though his name is not so familiar to the popular mind as those of some other men in the Republican ranks, enjoys a national reputation His field of political operations has been mainly in Ohio, but his commanding ability has attracted the attention of intelligent people throughout the Republic Perhaps there has been no debate between a Democrat and Republican in which greater ability was displayed than was shown by Hayes in his discussions with Allen, last fall

Hayes was educated as a lawyer, but, if we do not mistake, never entered the profession as a practician His mind ran more to active business than to the law office or the courts of justice When the civil war broke out he entered the service of the Union as Colonel of a volunteer regiment which he had raised He served for the most part with the army of the West, and before the close of the war, was brevetted Brigadier General At the end of the struggle he returned to Ohio, and soon afterwards was elected to Congress, defeating the Democratic candidate in a Democratic district Next he was elected Governor of the State Last fall he led the Republicans of Ohio to victory, and sent the rag baby into private nursing with Fog Horn Allen He is a Republican of the old school—one of the pioneers of the party—and his course has always been marked by purity both of purpose and method He has lived a stainless life, in public and private affairs, and enjoys the esteem and confidence of the entire community of which he is a member Governor Allen is reported to have said, after his defeat last October, that he had the consolation of knowing that he was beaten by the strongest man in the Republican party of the whole nation This high compliment is worthy of note, considering the source from which it came.

[illegible] nomination settles the question of who will be the next President of the United States

Hon. W. A. Wheeler, of New York, member of Congress from New York, and well known as the author of the Wheeler compromise, by which the Democrats ejected from the Louisiana legislature by the military were restored to their rightful places, is the nominee of the Cincinnati Convention for Vice President It is a good selection, and will bring strength to the ticket

NATIONAL NOMINATING CONVENTION

The Tribune, discussing the chances of nominations in national conventions, remarks that if we look at the record of the Whig and Republican party, we shall find that although it has not always accepted the candidate who made the best score at the start, it has never taken one who began lower than the second place In the Whig convention of 1848 the competitors were Taylor, with 111 votes on the first ballot, Clay with 97 Scott with 43 and Webster with 22 Their relative positions remained the same until the fourth ballot, when Clay fell below Scott, and Taylor was nominated by 171 votes At the opening of the Whig convention of 1852 Fillmore had 133 delegates, Scott 131 and Webster 29 At the second ballot two of Fillmore's went over to Scott, and the leaders ran neck and neck for a long time Scott secured a decided advantage, however, on the 30th ballot and was nominated on the 53d by 159 votes to Fillmore's 112 At the first National convention of the Republican party (1856) Fremont was nominated with only one ballot At the convention of 1860 where the total number of votes was 466 the first ballot stood, Seward 173½, Lincoln 102 Cameron 50½ Chase, 49 Bates 48 The second was, Seward, 184½ Lincoln 181, Cameron withdrawn Chase, 42½ Bates 35 The third Seward, 180 Lincoln 231½ Chase 24½ Bates 22 Mr Lincoln's vote was then increased to [illegible] In 1864 Mr Lincoln was renominated unanimously after one ballot and there was no contest over Gen Grant in 1868 or in 1872

At the Liberal convention of 1872 the result of the first trial of strength gave Adams 20 votes Greeley 14 and Trumbull 100 On the sixth Mr Adams counted 324, Mr Greeley [illegible] and Mr Trumbull 19 The final figures were Greeley 48 Adams 18

NOTES AND QUERIES

We have received the following answers to the question asked in "Notes and Queries" last week concerning the lawyer who defended his client after he had confessed himself guilty of murder The first and second questions are correct the third is incorrect

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

Answer to query in the OREGONIAN of June 10th Who was the distinguished English lawyer that some 15 years ago in a trial for murder received a confession of guilt from the accused and still continued his defense with great ability and where can a history of the case be found Answer—The above named dishonorable act was unjustly attributed to Charles Phillips in Courvoisier's case tried at London in the year 1840 A synopsis of the case can be found in Sarswood's Legal Ethics

D W B Baker City

Answer The distinguished lawyer that some thirty five years ago in a trial for the murder of Lord Wm Russell by his servant Francis Benjamin Connoiser, a native of Switzerland in the year 1840 The said lawyer was not an Englishman but was Irish His name was Charles Phillips A history of the case can be found by applying to Arthur Fahie South Portland

PORTLAND June 10 1876

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

In a column of your paper of this morning headed "Notes and Queries" I notice the query "Who was the distinguished English lawyer that some 15 or 20 years ago, in a trial for murder etc, etc" I think I can answer that question except as to time Robert Lowe of Sydney Australia, defended Knatchbull brother of Sir Edward Knatchbull, of England for the murder of a poor widow a small grocery storekeeper in Jameson street Sydney He made it appear that the defendant could not help it he being propelled to it The chief justice gave this famous Lowe a severe reprimand Mr Lowe has been a member of Parliament in England for several years and was a Cabinet Minister in Gladstone's time He was the most eloquent speaker in the Australian Legislature The occurrence to which I refer must have been 27 or 28 years ago instead of 15 or 20

J L D

The Democrats yesterday evening very wisely resolved not to make party nominations for the second and third wards the people's non partisan nominations in those wards being considered satisfactory to the citizens If the Republicans will only act with equal prudence in their convention and then if both parties will endorse the people's nomination of John B Foster, Esq, for Police Commissioner—the only office to be voted for except councilmen—the interests of the people will be subserved

The Republican National Convention lay down in their platform as one of the principles of sound administration of public affairs that for non political offices, personal fitness and not party fealty should be the test by which appointments are made That is a long step in the direction of pure government and honest public service Let the citizens but make the same distinction and apply the same rule in electing men to office and all will be well

Some time ago we remarked that the election of Blaine to the Presidency and Richard Williams to Congress would take place in November The name of Hayes should have been used instead of that of Blaine The mistake was not discovered in time to correct it before that number of the paper went to press hence this paragraph KALAMA.—Our correspondent at Kalama, writing under date of 16th inst., says: [illegible] water has fallen about five inches at this [illegible] Considerable damage has been done [illegible] portions of the railroad track. The track, however, has not been under [illegible] A large force of men are now at work [illegible] the exposed portions. Gen. Sprague, [illegible]dent, has been doing all that [illegible] be done to facilitate the transfer of passengers and freight. A few days ago most of [illegible] rolling stock was moved out to Cowlitz [illegible] with the intention of making that [illegible] the point of transfer until the water [illegible]. The barge Autocrat was towed up [illegible] river to the point above named, [illegible] used as a floating warehouse. A force [illegible] are at work at the same place [illegible] a plank roadway for the transfer of [illegible] from the [illegible] to the cars.

[illegible] SESSIONS.—We are informed by [illegible] of the Advocate that the Pacific [illegible] of the Methodist Episcopal [illegible] for the present year will be held at the [illegible] times and places by Rev. [illegible] TO MEET.—Mr. D. F. Harrington has charge of the Liberty Car, for [illegible] centennial celebration, desires all the little [illegible] have given him their names to meet [illegible] this (Saturday) afternoon at 4 [illegible]. A full attendance desirable.

[illegible] OF MR. HATT.—The funeral of [illegible] A. Hatt, who died Thursday evening, will take place at 10 o'clock this morning from the residence of Henry Failing, Esq.

PICNICS.

[illegible] the adjourned picnic of the Independent German school will take place at [illegible] Gardens. Persons having purchased tickets or badges for the last picnic will be good for next Sunday.

The Sunday schools connected with the [illegible] and Presbyterian churches and their friends will take the cars this morning for [illegible], where they propose to hold the annual picnic. All who expect to go must be at the [illegible] landing this morning at 7 o'clock sharp.

The Sunday schools of St. Stephen's and [illegible]'s Episcopal churches, will have a picnic in East Portland Park to-day. The [illegible] parents and friends of the schools will meet at their respective churches at eight o'clock this morning, and thence proceed to the Park.

BASE BALL.

[illegible] band will accompany the [illegible] from Vancouver to-day to Oregon City [illegible] with them. While coming [illegible] the band will discourse some very [illegible]

A [illegible] game of base ball will take place on the Oregon City grounds, between [illegible] Club, of Vancouver, and College [illegible]. The Spartans will leave Vancouver at 8 o'clock A. M., on the steamer [illegible] which will touch at Portland on [illegible]. The College boys and their Sa[illegible] will come down to Oregon City [illegible] express train. Both clubs are [illegible] the best wielders of the [illegible], and a rattling good game [illegible]

STAGE OF WATER.

[illegible] last evening, the line was down [illegible] the Cascades and no late report was [illegible] that point. The water rose 6 [illegible] yesterday. Yesterday at 9 o'clock [illegible] the O. S. N. Co.'s line indicates the following condition of affairs:

[illegible] Weather clear; thermometer 78 [illegible]. The river has risen six inches since 6.30 last evening, and the steamer Tenino [illegible] the Snake river rising at the rate of 1½ [illegible] per hour.

[illegible].—The river has risen seven inches [illegible] 6.30 o'clock yesterday.

The Dalles.—Weather clear; the river has risen 12 inches since 6.30 last evening.

Wallula, 11 A. M.—Since 8 o'clock this [illegible] the river is at a stand.

MILITARY NOTES.

2d Lieut. Edward B. Rheem, 21st Infantry, is appointed to act as inspector on certain [illegible] stores at Fort Boise, I. T., for which 2d Lieut. Daniel Cornman, 21st Infantry, post quartermaster, is accountable.

The commanding officer, Fort Canby, Cape [illegible], W. T., will detach temporarily an officer from his post to report to the commanding officer, Fort Stevens, for garrison court-martial duty, on completion of which he will rejoin his station.

Under provisions of circular letter from the war department, dated March 1, 1876 leave of absence for two months, to take effect the 16th instant, to visit the Centennial Exhibition, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, is granted 2d Lieut. Francis E. Eltonhead, 21st Infantry. (Fort Vancouver, W. T.)

SPECIAL CHURCH NOTICES.

Rev. Mr. Skinner will preach in the First Presbyterian church on Sabbath next, 18th inst.

Lay services will be held in the Unitarian Chapel on Sunday morning. Sunday school at 12:30. Evening services omitted.

The Rev. Mr. Butcher, of The Dalles, is expected to preach in the First Baptist church, corner of Fourth and Alder streets, on Sunday the 18th, morning and evening, at the usual hours of worship.

FIRE MENTION.

The new suction has been put in place on No. 4's steamer.

The Exempt Firemen's Association will not turn out as a body on the Fourth.

Next week No. 3's steamer will be taken to the shop and put in splendid trim for the coming contest.

The members of No. 1 having ordered red shirts will call at Neimyer & Utter's and have their measure for the same, immediately.

New hats have been received by the members of No 1. Mr. T. McDevitt has the contract to make the new belts, and E. Wood the shirts.

This evening Mr. Holman, Secretary of the Board of Delegates, will be at his office in the police building, to deliver fire badges to those entitled to them.

Willamette No. 1 has just hoisted a new flag staff over the engine house. The pole is 47 feet high, and from its summit will float a new flag 20x11 feet.

The house of Engine Co. No. 4 will soon be renovated and kalsomined throughout, and the members are making preparations to decorate their house in grand style.

Last evening we understand that a meeting was held by the committee on fire and water and the chief engineer, to discuss the propriety of purchasing 2,000 feet of hose.

The "immense" trumpet presented by Mr. A. Wendt, of No. 2, to Harry Morgan, foreman of 4's, has been handsomely painted and will be placed as a weather-vane upon the new flagstaff.

The officers and members of engine No. 1 desire publicly to thank Messrs. Henschuch & Schmidt, Henry Fleckenstein, and many other kind friends whose names have been forgotten, for the many favors extended on the morning of the recent fire.

Engineer McMullen of Engine Co. 4 has just completed the painting of a magnificent flagstaff, 50 feet in length, to be placed upon the engine house. It was presented, complete, to the Company by Mr. Jack Smith, ship-carpenter. B. E. Lippincott, Esq., presented the Company with two large American flags, each 25 feet long, and also several smaller ones.

Protection No. 1's steamer is being most beautifully painted for the coming Centennial by Mr. Dan Owens, who is doing a splendid piece of work for the "boys." The fire box of the engine is being adorned with a scene of Mount Hood on one side and Columbia river bar on the other. On the back is also a very pretty scene of a fireman rescuing a child from a burning building.

Thursday evening, about 11:30 o'clock, a young man named Albert Gee, living with his parents on Holladay avenue, in East Portland, discovered a fire in the kitchen of a neighbor, Mr. Melders. He went to the house and tried to arouse the inmates, but getting no answer, he broke in the door with an ax, gave the alarm and with the assistance of the inmates and neighbors, succeeded in extinguishing the flames which had gained considerable headway. Later in the night, at two other times the fire again kindled up, and was with difficulty extinguished. The damage will amount to about $150.

At the Centennial celebration in Portland, the various fire organizations have been assigned the third division, by the chief marshal, and will be formed in the following order Marshal, Aids, Aurora Brass Band, Chief and Assistant Engineers P. F. D., Albany Fire Department, Corvallis Fire Department, Salem Fire Department, Oregon City Fire Department, Vancouver Fire Department, Dalles City Fire Department, Albany Brass Band, Willamette Engine Co. No. 1, P. F. D., Multnomah Engine Co. No. 2, P. F. D., Columbian Engine Co. No. 3, P. F. D., Protection Engine Co No. 4, P. F. D., Tiger Engine Co No. 5, P. F. D., Vigilance Hook and Ladder Co. No. 1, P. F. D., Board of Delegates, Ex-Chief and Assistant Engineers.

THE COURTS.

Oregon Iron Works vs Eugene Spedden et al; cause tried and submitted.

State vs J. C. Fales; assault with a dangerous weapon; defendant arraigned and given until Monday next to plead

Grand jury presents 1 true bill of indictment and 2 bills not true.

THE TURF.

This afternoon a match trotting race will come off over the course at the White House for $100 on a side.

We learn from a recent Walla Walla exchange that Wm. Glasford has bought from M. B. Ward the three year-old black Bellfounder filly that he drove in the best two in three race in 3:36, after six weeks' training. Price paid, $500.

Says the Salem Mercury of Wednesday: Mr. W. C. Myer, the importer of the celebrated Percheron stock to Oregon, sent yesterday to Ashland for his magnificent animal, "White Rose." This splendid equine, with her mate, "White Prince," will be attached to Linn company's steamer on the day of the parade at the Portland Centennial, while the other thoroughbred member of the royal family, "Pride of Perche," will distinguish himself upon that occasion by taking the hose carriage of the same company through the admiring crowds that will witness the procession on that day.

BRIEF NOTES.

Front street below Washington is being ballasted.

The barkentine Portland is now loading with lumber at Weidler's mill.

The river rose here yesterday between 9 o'clock A. M. and 11 P. M. 3½ inches.

Sheriff Manning, of Jackson county, Thursday, committed to the asylum, David M. Crocket of that county, who has been adjudged insane.

Albert Gee's name by mistake appeared as Alfred Gill yesterday in the report of the coroner's inquest held over the body of Geo. Cresswell.

In our report of the "unpleasantness" which occurred Thursday afternoon at the corner of Morrison and First streets, in relation to the possession of the Webfoot saloon, there was a slight inaccuracy. The suit for possession of the premises was brought by Mr. James Terwilliger against Mr. P. J. Martin and not Messrs. Sherlock & Shartel.

NUMBER OF ELECTORS.

A careful examination of the poll-books of 1874 and 1876 shows the following to be the exact number of electors in each precinct of the county who exercised the right of suffrage, also the total number of votes cast at each election

W. L. ADAMS M. D., A. M., LL. D., corner of First and Salmon streets, is curing the most inveterate chronic diseases of all kinds at a low price, by medicated, electric lightning cream baths and by combining the German and French with the American improved practice mixed with a little common sense. His treatment is, in the main, entirely original, and works almost miracles, as his numerous patients will attest. A lady always in the office to assist in treating women.

CONGREGATIONAL ASSOCIATION.

At 7:30 yesterday evening Rev. W. R. Butcher preached from Mark 9:40. Subject: Christian Liberalism, assisted in the services by Dr. Crang. After this there was a very enjoyable reunion, with refreshments, which was given by the ladies of the Congregational church in this place.

This morning additional delegates were received from Seattle, Albany, Salem and Oregon City also Rev. C. A. Huntington, from Neah Bay, Rev. T. Condon, from Forest Grove, and Rev. J. H. D. Henderson, from Eugene City.

Rev. E. Godfrey, of Philomath and Rev. W. M. Stewart, of Seabeck, were received as members of the Association, and Mrs. S. A. Collier was invited to sit as a corresponding member.

The Oregon Home Missionary Society held a meeting and heard the report of its general missionary, Dr. Atkinson, and of its president, Dea. Shindler. Dr. Atkinson reported three new pastors secured, one each for Astoria, Seattle and Olympia. He has spent his time chiefly at Oregon City and four out stations, North Portland, East Portland, Tacoma, Olympia, Hillsboro and Beaverton. He has traveled eight thousand miles and received less than twelve hundred dollars for salary and traveling expenses.

Prof. J. W. Marsh read an essay on the work of Prof. Christlieb—"Modern Doubt and Christian Belief." He was followed by an essay by Rev. M. Eells, on the relations of the Church to the Nation at the present time. This was followed by a very earnest discussion which had reference chiefly to the relations of the Church to the Young Men's Christian Associations, and a resolution was passed endorsing the work of those associations.

In the afternoon Dr. Bentley was invited to become a corresponding member of the body. The time was chiefly occupied with hearing the reports of the churches, there being nine in Oregon and seven in Washington Territory. From these reports it appeared that the total membership is 791, an increase over last year of 150 members. The amount of contributions for benevolent purposes during the past year has been about $1,100, and for home purposes $10,300. The average attendance on public worship has been about thirteen hundred, on Sabbath schools ten hundred and fifty, and on prayer meetings three hundred. The adult baptisms numbered fifty-seven, and the infant baptisms twenty-five. The churches at Portland, Salem and Oregon City reported revivals, those at Portland and Forest Grove spoke of the resignation of their pastors; those at Olympia and Astoria, the obtaining of new pastors, and those at Seattle and Skokomish, a change in their ministers.

The following resolutions in regard to the Chinese were then adopted:

WHEREAS, The "Chinese question" is becoming a prominent one in the politics of this coast, and is now being urged as a subject for national action in the American Congress; and,

WHEREAS, Many prominent men are moving for such modifications of the Burlingame treaty as we think will interfere with American commercial and industrial interests, and seriously hinder the moral and missionary work of American Christians among the Chinese, therefore,

Resolved 1st. That in the sense of this association, the true solution of this grave question is not to oppose the coming of Chinese to these shores, nor to seek any modification of said treaty, but to break down by legal restraints and penalties the present contract system of the "Chinese companies," and destroy their power to keep those brought here in a state of virtual slavery.

Resolved, 2d. That an important share of this work falls upon the American churches, especially those of this coast, whose duty it is to teach comers from all lands the principles of equality and individual liberty which belong to the doctrines of Christ, and which when fully received, will emancipate the Mongolian, as it will the men of other races from all those traits of character and habits of life which make him a source of danger to the republic.

The following is the programme for to-day. 8 A. M., morning prayer meeting, to be led by Dr. Crang; 9 A. M., miscellaneous business, 10 A. M., local church history, 11 A. M., essay by Rev. W. M. Stewart; 2 P. M., woman's mission work, Mrs. S. C. Hatch to lead, 4 P. M., miscellaneous business; 8 P. M., sermon by Rev. P. S. Knight.

For Sabbath—11 A. M., Congregational Church, sermon by Rev. J. F. Ellis, to be followed by the administration of the Lord's Supper.

At the Presbyterian church, Rev. G. W. Skinner; at the Baptist church, Rev. W. R. Butcher; at the Methodist church, Rev. P. S. Knight.

From 12.30 to 2:30 there will be a service for the Sabbath schools at the Congregational church.

From 3.30 until 5 P. M., services at the rooms of the Y. M. C. A.

In the evening, at the Methodist church, Rev. F. Crang will preach, and at the Congregational church there will be a prayer and conference meeting, to be led by Rev. Dr. Atkinson, but in which all will be invited to participate.

PRIZE TARGET SHOOTING.

RULES AND REGULATIONS TO GOVERN DURING CENTENNIAL WEEK.

1. Only off hand shooting will be allowed. While shooting no part of the body will be permitted to rest or touch anywhere.
2. The stock of the gun or rifle must not be placed under the vest or coat while shooting.
3. Any rifle which does not carry less than 30 round balls to the pound will be allowed to be used.
4. Any sight will be allowed except telescope or front disc sights.
5. Each competitor will be allowed three shots, and no sighting shots.
6. Every competitor will shoot for himself and no others.
7. Every competitor must see that his shots are correctly registered, to avoid trouble when the decision of the judges is given in.
8. In no instance must a gun be capped or the cartridge be placed therein till the marksman is at the stand to shoot. When carrying the gun, carry muzzle up, to avoid accidents.
9. If there is any change to be made to the sights or gun it must be done at the stand and nowhere else.
10. If while the gun is leveled at the target it should go off accidentally, such shot will be counted as having been fired at the target. Marksmen will be very careful of this.
11. There will be two targets and at each target a bell-pull, which the marksmen must ring immediately after his shot to inform the marker to look at his target and mark the shot.
12. No person will be allowed to go to or near the target unless accompanied by one or more of the committee.
13. The committee settles all disputes in regard to shooting, marking or recording shots, and such decision shall be binding.
14. Positively no smoking in the shooting stand.
15. No competitor or any other person will be allowed more than one pound of powder in the stand, and if they have more the committee will take charge the same and place it in a safe.
16. The targets will be two in number, each three feet square, with a black center twelve inches in diameter, in the center of which will be a bull's eye of four inches, also back. The target will be divided into twelve parts and each ring be numbered from the center—12, 11, 10, 9, 8, 7, 6, 5, 4, 3, 2, 1.
17. Entrance fee will be $2.

Entrance can be made with H. W. Dilg, 98 Front street.

PORTLAND, June 16

You will never have such an opportunity again, as Fishel & Roberts propose to close out their present stock to make room for new goods to open with in their new store. Take advantage of the opportunity and recollect the place.

Go and try Barnes' Capital Coffee and lunch.

If you have no spare cash to invest in tickets to the Philadelphia Centennial stay at home and enjoy your own. You can see big sights and buy clothing equally as cheap at Kohn's Emporium, First and Morrison streets. He keeps his stock full and of the best.

CORNS AND BUNIONS.

Dr. Hall [illegible] treats corns, bunions, ingrowing nails, [illegible] at [illegible] residence or hotel. He can be addressed through the postoffice, or seen at his office and residence, corner Eighth and Market streets.

PLEASURE BOATS.

JOHN L. CHAPPELLE, Boat Builder, is prepared to furnish Boats for sale or Rent at any moment. Boat house foot of Pine street.

EUGENE ITEMS.

Our correspondent at Eugene sends the following under date of June 16th:

Hon. John Burnett has been invited to deliver the oration at the firemen's celebration, on the Fourth.

Strawberry festivals and fishing excursions are now the order of the day. The trout, however, do not suffer as badly as the berries.

Notwithstanding the hot weather and the discomfort of doubling blankets, the matrimonial market is lively. One marriage yesterday and two on the tapis next week.

A second nine has been organized with the base ball club at this place, and a challenge sent to the College Juniors. We hope the challenge will be accepted and a friendly game played between the boys.

A son of Mr. J. N. Poindexter, aged about four years, fell from the top of a porch yesterday, breaking one of his arms above the elbow and otherwise bruising him. Physicians were immediately called and the arm set.

T. G. Hendricks has at his store a petrefaction that excites the most lively interest. Guessing as to its nature is indulged in, and "Tom" says he thinks he knows its former substance. Persons visiting Eugene would do well to call and see it, as a description is almost impossible.

A dissipation, which we regard as one of the worst in its effects upon a white man, is that of smoking opium, and we regret to say that in a small town like Eugene persons may be found so unthinking and reckless as to thus enter upon a course from which, when fairly started, there can be no escape from terrible disaster.

POLICE COMMISSIONER.

PORTLAND, June 16, 1876.

JOHN R. FOSTER, Esq.—Dear Sir: We, the undersigned, citizens and tax-payers of the city of Portland, duly appreciating your efforts during your term of office, in behalf of a well regulated, efficient and economical police force, take this method of soliciting you to become a candidate for re-election at the ensuing election in this city, and promise you our cordial support. Very respectfully,

D. W. Burnside, Wm. Wadhams, O. H. Lewis, E. C. Lord, Wm. Bond, Richard G. Knapp, C. S. Schenck, Isam White, John Mesick, Hawley, Dodd & Co, S. G. Reed, Wasserman & Co., Geo. H. Flanders, J. Bachman, Geo. W. Hoyt, H. Everding, W. Jackson, T. Dittenhoefer, Millard & VanSchuyver, I. Kaufman, Kaufman, Hecht & Akin, Hy. E. Dosch, Benj. F. Smith, T. A. Davis, F. K. Arnold, Chas. Hodge, L. C. Henrichsen, W. Gallick, J. L. Atkinson, Geo. Woodward.

Reply.

PORTLAND, June 16, 1876.

Messrs. Burnside, Wadhams, Lewis, Reed and others Yours is received. I do not desire the office; but if you think it desirable that I should serve another term, I will consent to do so if elected. Yours,

JOHN R. FOSTER.

The True Medical Philosophy.

The remarkable cures of Dyspepsia, constipation, general debility, intermittent and remittent fevers, nervousness, mental despondency, and a host of other ailments, by that popular botanic invigorant and alterative, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, prove that to vitalize, not deplete, the sick, is the true medical philosophy. Under the old system patients underwent a course of treatment that often had the effect of exhausting their few remaining energies. Drastic purgation, and the administration of violent remedies with a weakening reaction, were frequently and most unnecessarily resorted to in cases where invigoration combined with mild regulative treatment was the sole desideratum. That this unwise mode of medication has been to a great extent abandoned is in no small degree due to the success which has attended the peerless remedy above named.

RETURNED.

Dr. Wightman has again returned to this city, where he can be found at his rooms, northeast corner of Stark and Fourth streets. Remember he makes a specialty of HEMORRHOIDS or PILES and other DISEASES OF THE RECTUM, giving IMMEDIATE RELIEF AND CURING in a very short time, without interfering with the business of the patient. I use no knife, caustic, ligature or any other painful remedies, having treated many cases of twenty and thirty years' standing with entire satisfaction to the parties treated, I have no hesitation in saying SATISFACTION GUARANTEED. Persons at a distance may consult by mail. The "process" sent by express C. O. D. (not by mail). Consultation fee, $2. Postoffice box, 247, Portland, Oregon.

DEMOCRATIC MEETING — NOMINATIONS.

PORTLAND, June 16.

Pursuant to adjournment a large number of Democrats of the city of Portland met at Oro Fino Hall for the purpose of receiving the report of the committee, heretofore appointed to suggest the names of suitable candidates for the respective positions to be voted for at the ensuing city election. The committee reported as follows:

To the Democrats of the city of Portland: We, your committee appointed at your meeting at Oro Fino Hall, June 14, 1876, to suggest names of candidates to present to the voters of this city at the coming city election, respectfully beg leave to report.

The name of A. Roberts as a candidate for police commissioner.

The names of Thomas Stephens and D. F. Harrington as candidates for councilmen for the first ward.

We would suggest that, as the name of W. H. Andrus has been proposed as councilman for the second ward by a large number of citizens, irrespective of party, and as he has signified his willingness to accept such nomination, we favor the endorsement of such nomination.

We deem it inexpedient to make nominations for the third ward. All of which is respectfully submitted.

J. R. Wiley, Jacob Graham, B. L. Norden, Chas. E. Sitton, H. Fleckenstein, W. J. Kelly, H. B. Nicholas, R. Mendenhall, committee.

The report was unanimously adopted, and thereupon nominations were made in accordance with said report.

A city committee of G. A. Young, J. M. Graham, F. Gatens, C. E. Sitton, J. E. Atwatery and H. B. Nicholas was appointed for the ensuing year.

On motion, adjourned.

PETER TAYLOR, Chairman.

B. L. NORDEN, Secretary.

FOR THE LADIES.

Network of all sorts is fashionable.

Half hose again for young children.

Corsages are still made cuirass shape.

In linen, the standing, English collar, very high.

New designs are out in silver chains and lockets.

Transparent stuffs of silk, wool and cotton are now the fashion.

Cashmere is in demand for everything but the deepest mourning.

Another effort will be made to introduce black lace mittens this summer.

New braids made of steel cloth and worked with silks are exquisite but costly.

Embroidered silk and satin corsets are being largely adopted by fashionable ladies.

Ladies' stockings are embroidered not only across the instep, but far above the ankle.

French kid shoes strapped across the front so as to display the stockings are fashionable.

Leghorn straw is in demand for watering places, where it will be much affected this summer.

The newest ruches for the inside of bonnets are composed of a double point of cream lace, with a small flower at the side.

Centennial aprons are made of Swiss muslin, cut plain, with a three cornered bib, and edged with side pleatings of Swiss.

Ladies' croquet sets are something new. They consist of silver studs for both collar and cuffs, each stud representing a mallet with a ball midway on the handle, and designed to be worn only for croquet parties.

"ALAS THE RARITY OF CHRISTIAN CHARITY"

A lonely mother w[illegible]
Sat watching [illegible]
From early dawn until the evening [illegible]
Unknown [illegible]

Cold [illegible] weep with [illegible]
[illegible]
[illegible]
She trusted [illegible]
Whom [illegible]
The father of the babe upon her knee

Unto those weary eyelids comes no rest
No solace [illegible] the infant at her breast
No constant friend no loving sister kind
All have been sacrificed all left behind
To shield her lover and to hide her shame
From wealth to poverty she humbly came

Her face is lit with momentary joy
A rap is heard upon the poor house door
Oh, would to God it were my lovely boy
She prays with bended knee upon the floor
Footsteps and voices meet the mother's ears
Confirming [illegible] doubts and fears
They enter and behold the weeping still
Arrayed in silks and flashing diamonds grand,
They gaze unknown upon the mother there
Her pearly lips still murmuring a prayer,
The babe still clinging to her sobbing breast
Oh, God forgive them, for Thou know'st the rest
As christians have they come to quell her grief,
As followers of Christ to give relief
To her poor lost and ruined soul?
They come—not to annoy, but to console
They picture to her mind her many wrongs,
And sing to her a score of sacred songs.
This stately christian consolation o'er
With haughty step they turn them to the door
No words of kindness—not e'en one caress—
They proffer not to clothe her nakedness,
Fearing to soil their fingers or their dress
They give her hand no kindly parting press

Again the mother sits upon the floor
And weeps. Her poor, sad heart was broke before,
And now that all her crime a thousand fold
More horrible than e'er she dreamed is told
A maniac light gleams from her eye—
[illegible]

Her reason fled with thoughts and movements wild
She takes within her arms her darling child,
And hurrying onward to the river's brinks
She halts not till the last remaining link
Twixt Life and Death is severed And the roll
Of angry seething waters part the soul
Of child and mother And the low sad wail
Of anguish gently wafted on the gale,
Ne'er wakes those christian comforters who came
To save her soul, by pointing out her shame

Oh Charity! thou art a God sent gift
Which prompteth man the sinner to uplift
Thou wilt restore the erring, though they fall
Thy motto—'Love and Charity for all

POLO PLAYING

Polo, or shinney, or bareback, is just now the rage among the healthy young New Yorkers The N Y Times contains a long account of a game which doubtless afforded much amusement to the spectators, though not exactly of the kind most relished by the players From the Times account it would seem that the ponies and riders parted company whenever the former felt so inclined Sir Bache Cunard, who is said to be a celebrated English polo player, was run away with and thrown by his pony more than once, and several of the other players had a like experience, none, however, seem to have been hurt The following is the account of the game

The ponies, sixteen in number, were tethered on the left side of the grounds and were curiously examined by those who saw them for the first time They were generally a plain looking set of quadrupeds long eared stubby tailed, and wofully inclined to ribs and collar bones When straddled by the players they presented a more animated appearance frisking about the turf with a great deal of spirit, and chasing the wooden balls from goal to goal with almost incredible speed Sir Bache Cunard rode a mettlesome bay slightly larger than the other ponies, and had more than his hands full to keep himself in saddle He had no sooner mounted than the little horse began to gallop about the grounds quite unmindful of the jerks of the bridle and the "whoas of his rider Suddenly he espied the tent erected by the club for the accommodation of lady visitors Possibly he scented the straw covering of the wine bottles that strewed the floor Quick as a flash he darted for the tent and the next instant his rider was sprawling on the ground Cunard remounted after mending the broken bridle, and before he knew where he was the pony had bolted the polo grounds and started at a furious rate up the highway

Lord Mandeville and Sir B Cunard opened the game. Mandeville was first to the ball and struck at it a blow that would certainly have demolished it if it had been well aimed As it was the mallet skimmed past the ball and struck a little mound of turf adjacent Cunard was more successful in his stroke He got in a splendid blow, and, with good following his party were enabled to drive the ball through the Mandeville goal in about five minutes So much confusion had resulted from having so many men in the game that several drew out, and the fourth game was played with three players on a side Cunard Mr Bennett, and Gussie Jay were pitted against Mandeville, Thorn, and Robbins The match was a very even one, and displayed some excellent work and lots of fun besides At one time the ball got out of the crowd a little, and Mr Bennett was its nearest neighbor. You've got it now, Jim! Just give it to her good shouted Lord Mandeville Mr Bennett needed no impetus from Lord Mandeville He was already going after the ball as fast as his pony's legs could take him He poised his mallet and struck with vigorous arm A piece of turf six inches square went spinning through the air, but the ball did not move. As for Mr Bennett, he had lost command of his pony and came back nearly breathless from the adjacent field vowing that he would not ride that pony again till he had a curb bit on him Sir Bache Cunard was even more unfortunate His bay horse had not yet lost his fire He had evidently been waiting for a chance to take his rider off guard. He found it in this game, and to the infinite amusement of the fair ladies, to say nothing of the club, Cunard was tumbled head foremost over his pony's head into the grass He came up smiling resumed his seat and the game went on Time after time the ball was snatched out of defeat and hurried on almost to victory Now it seemed that Cunard was sure to win but the event showed otherwise Mandeville's side was the stronger at the end and scored the game Time 20 minutes Two other sides were then made up of fresh players Messrs Moore, Robbins Purdy and Kane taking the field against Messrs William Jay, Franklin Mott and Griswold The Jay party won the game in 10 minutes and the following and last game of the afternoon in a quarter of an hour The playing yesterday was much in advance of that shown on any previous day

Good—Powell's Recorder gets off the following which those who pay [illegible] should reflect upon

Our Cincinnati correspondent is responsible for the following

J P Spining has been interviewed by Benjamin a revivalist from Chicago

Benj—Are you the manager of the Elm street Printing Co?

Sp—Yes sir

Benj—I have a job I wish you to do for me

Sp—All right we can do it for you

Benj—Well I want it done for nothing I prayed to God to direct me to some kind hearted printer who would not charge me for the work, and He directed me to your establishment

Sp—Well I guess the Lord don't know us or He would not have sent you here There was only one printer in the city that done work as you want it done and I guess he is dead, or moved over the hills to the poor house

BAY VIEW HOUSE,

BAKER'S BAY, UNITY, W. T.

MR. DEXTER INFORMS THE PUBLIC that his House is now open for the reception of guests Its advantages in every respect over any other Summer Resort are too well known to Oregonians to repeat here To strangers I will say that the place is in plain sight and across the Bay from Astoria on the sheltered side of Cape Hancock and very near and adjacent to the Fort and Lighthouse on Baker's Bay a beautiful sheet of water unequaled for Sailing Rowing Fishing and Bathing The dark forest with its picturesque drives its mountain springs profusion of wild berries wild flowers and ferns the horse trail to the Cape for Equestrians or walkers is one of the most delightful panoramas to the eye ever witnessed The cosy beaches its caves luxuriantly wooded Island its views of Astoria, Chinook Fort Stevens [illegible] Tillamook in the blue distance

The courteous hospitality of the officers of the Garrison at the Fort and also of Mr Munson and family of the Lighthouse make that place well worthy of a visit

The Salt Water Bathing in the bay within a few feet of the hotel excels anything far or near for warmth of the water and mildness of its waves far preferable to the heavy surf and cold winds for women children and invalids while the sturdy swimmer or those who love the foaming surf in a few minutes walk will find a beach unsurpassed in beauty hard and level for one continuous drive of thirty miles At this side are huge rocks stretching out into the ocean from which fishers take from the sea Bass Rockfish Tom Cod Porgies etc etc Crabs Clams Oysters &c in abundance (and the Table will never lack a sufficiency of these delicacies) Boats upon the Bay Saddle Horses for the children Teams to the Weather Beach Croquet Swings Quoits etc FREE to Guests

Prices reduced from the old tariff

To those who would like to camp out wood and water and use of ground free Groceries provisions milk eggs butter etc for sale at a small profit Campers can board at the Hotel if they prefer at fair rates A large Livery Stable is now new and fine Ten Pin Alleys attached to the place

Stage Office to Oysterville Postoffice Wells Fargo & Co office also there No raw [illegible] bumps [illegible] and more beautiful tracks and shady groves cannot be found The only regret the landlord has is that his house is not larger [illegible] are large enough and beautiful enough to warrant next season a Hotel worthy of the surroundings.
